PRESBYTERIANISM.

The Old and New School Assemblies

The Foreign Missions—Sabbath Schools—Vote of Old School Presbyteries on Reunion—A New Basis Proposed, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, May 25.—In the Old School Presbyterian Assembly to-day, Hon. Martin Ryerson, of New Jersey, offered a resolution deploring the existing state of feeling between this country and Great Britain, and exhorting all Presbyterians to pray to God to so enlighten and influence the understanding and hearts of rulers and people that all matters of difference may be amicably settled.

At the instance of Senator Drake, the resolution was amended by omitting any reference to the possibility of war, and unanimously adopted.

The Committee on Foreign Missions reported insufficient receipts to meet expenses and extinguish the previous debt; expense $343,898, and receipts $339,497. Resolutions were adopted by the Assembly, pledging the Presbyteries to sustain the work.

At the afternoon session the committee to correspond with the Grand Army of the Republic relative to the decoration of soldiers' graves next Sabbath reported that they were unable to find the officers with whom to open correspondence, and were discharged. It was stated that the decoration in New Jersey will take place on Saturday and Monday.

The stated clerk reported the votes as far as known in the Presbyteries on the basis of reunion, as 36 in favor and 107 against. The report was recommitted for correction.

The report of the Committee on foreign missions was then discharged.

The Committee on Church Polity reported in favor of erecting a new Synod, to be known as the Synod of Kansas, to consist of the Presbyteries of Kansas, Smoky Hill and Humbolt. The report was adopted.

Without further action the Assembly adjourned.

NEW SCHOOL ASSEMBLY.

In the New School Assembly to-day, Rev. Dr. Darling, from the Committee on Polity of the Church, read an overture from the Presbytery of Desmoines in reference to the dissolution of a church there. The committee answered that the Church is dissolved, and the Assembly confirmed the report.

The report of the standing committee on Sabbath Schools was read. It recommends the Assembly to take the system under its protection, and through its influence impart new vitality to Sabbath schools throughout the United States. The present attitude of the Church is dishonoring, and ought to be at once rectified. A resolution was passed disbanding the permanent committee on Sabbath Schools.

At the afternoon session Dr. Fisher read a report on the conference with other Presbyterian bodies. The delegates from the Old and New Schools and from other bodies met and unanimously agreed that reunion was most desirable if the way was clear. The following four points were submitted as a basis of reunion:

First, The Old and New Testaments are accepted as the rule of faith.

Second, The Westminister Confession and Catechism, slightly modified as far as regards civil law, is adopted as a full and accurate interpretation of the Holy Writ.

Third, the united church is to accept the Presbyterian form of government.

Fourth, the united church accepts the psalmody and prescribes its use.

The report was referred to the Standing Committee on Reunion.

Dr. Hastings, of the Standing Committee on Publications, read the report of the Permanent Committee, congratulating the Assembly on the advance made during the year, and asking more hearty co-operation. Considerable discussion followed.

The report was finally adopted.

A committee from the Reformed Church was announced, with a circular proposing a convention of all evangelical denominations in this city next fall. It was referred to a special committee. It appears the basis of union previously alluded to is in case of adoption to be referred to a joint committee to meet in Pittsburgh in August, to consider such further questions as may be necessary to the formal consummation of the union. Adjourned.

THE SOUTHERN ASSEMBLY.

MOBILE, May 25.—The Presbyterian Assembly on Monday appointed a committee to revise the form of government and discipline. The committee reported in part to-day. The Assembly recommends its Presbyteries to throw their licentiates, as far as practicable, into destitute fields. On the subject of co-operation with the General Assembly of the Old School in the labor among the freedmen, the following was unanimously adopted:

That inasmuch as the correspondence of the Secretary of the Committee on Freedmen of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America with the Secretary of sustenation of our Church has developed no practicable mode of co-operation between the two Churches in the efforts to evangelize the freedmen, this General Assembly is not prepared to take any steps contemplating the proposed concert of action.

Resolved, That the Secretary of Sustenation is hereby instructed to communicate the foregoing resolution to the Committee on Freemen of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian churches in the United States of America.

A resolution on the maintenance of simplicity in church music was laid over. A missionary meeting was held Monday night. A plan was reported for insuring the lives of ministers, and a resolution introduced looking to an amendment in the charter of the church. At a meeting to-night several addresses were made on the subjects of education and publication.

Landing of the Filibusters.

Further Particulars of the Affair—Seizure of the Steamer Salvador.

HAVANA, VIA KEY WEST, May 25.—Advices from Santiago de Cuba to the 19th instant, give the following account of affairs with the filibusters in the bay of Nipe: According to reports of Spaniards themselves, it is supposed the expedition landed from the steamer Peril. The Spanish troops surprised the party, attacking and taking their position with seven guns and a flag marked "given by E. C. Villevarde to the Riflemen of Liberty." The filibusters rallied, recaptured their position and guns, but lost the flag. They fired upon the Spanish steamer Marsella, putting two shots through her hull. The gunboat African arrived off the shore, but soon left for Nuevitas to bring reinforcements. The excitement at Nuevitas was intense. A steamer had been dispatched to communicate with the authorities at Havana. The steamer Peril arrived at Kingston, Jamaica, on the 15th inst., where she was quarantined because she had touched at Cuba.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The Herald's Havana special says: The English steamer Salvador returned to Nassau on the 8th inst., from the north coast of Cuba, where she succeeded in landing all her men, arms, ammunition and provisions. After her return she was seized by the Receiver General for violating the foreign enlistment act. The Captain and several of the crew have arrived at Key West.

HAVANA, May 25.—Captain General Dulce has issued a decree ordering the military authorities in eight specified jurisdictions to seize all the horses and prevent their falling into the hands of the rebels. The owners are to be paid for their animals, which are to be used in Government service.

The steamer Peril arrived at Kingston, Jamaica, on the 15th inst., after landing an expedition in the Bay of Nipe. She returns to New York in a few days. Five Cuban passengers remained on board.

Spirit of the London Press—Excitement in France Over the Elections—Government Majority Over One Hundred—The Alliance Hoax, &c., &c.

Spirit of the London Press.

LONDON, May 24.—The papers here have striking articles on American matters. The Star, Bright's organ, takes up the theme of the recent speech of Mr. Forster, of Parliament, and endeavors to show that the neutrality proclamation was a real benefit to the North. It assails Mr. Sumner for endeavoring to endanger the peace between the two countries, and argues that while the general society in England favored the South, the laboring classes undoubtedly sympathized with the American Government. It further declares that the general opinion may probably be unfavorable to the Irish Church bill, but is certainly opposed to an ample and statesmanlike settlement of the Irish land question, which is sure to be the next great act of the Government, and will be established despite of such feeling. It therefore believes it to be impolitic on the part of American statesmen to spurn the friendly offer of a few million dollars for the purpose of claiming fabulous damages for futile affronts offered by the abashed upper ten thousand.

The Standard, Tory organ, bitterly assails the Radicals for addressing Americans in language of affection and admiration. The flattery with which the Americans have been besmeared is the cause of their existing menacing attitude. No man with English blood in his veins could deal with Mr. Sumner's speech in such a feeble and unmanly strain. America is deceived by the belief that England meekly endures the insult and will humbly submit to the chastisement, and all but committed itself by the message addressed to such a nation as England, which could but answer the challenge uttered by America. It remembers the plain facts of war, and cannot be humbugged into the belief that the bulk of the English people approved of the subjugation of the South. Such assertions make Americans believe that England, by telling lies, wishes to escape a thrashing. We were never guilty of meanness in denying the sympathies we entertained in order to escape the displeasures of the successful party. The educated classes who sympathized with the South are a nation in which the masses are only followers.

LONDON, May 25.—The Times of to-day, in view of the approaching arrival of Mr. Motley, the newly appointed American Minister, concludes that Mr. Motley will make no fresh overtures on the Alabama claims, as no new proposals have been offered to England. The dead-lock on the question would excite no apprehension, but for the fact that the Americans display no disposition to divide the material from the sentimental greivances. It says whatever wrong may have happened owing to the neutrality proclamation of the Queen was purely accidental, and asserts resolutely that in order to maintain claims arising from the Alabama depredations as identical with all wrongful captures, it cannot permit to be erased from the category the fact that such demands are made on the geound that an unfriendly spirit preceded the escape of the depredator. The demand for atonement of unfriendliness is of another character, and can be resisted on the ground that whatever direction British sympathies took, the Government cannot be held accountable. On such a point a tribunal will certainly separate one from the other. Let no misdirection of sympathy but reflection and cool communings of conscience settle the question, and on both sides let the alleged injuries be measured and appraised by proper tribunals. That course may open a way for a settlement of the difficulties, and we shall be rejoiced to find the Americans have discovered it.

The French Elections.

PARIS, May 24.—The election in France for the Corps Legislatif resulted as follows: Government candidates elected, one hundred and ninety-three; opposition candidates elected, ninety. The number of the opposition party in the last Corps Legislatif was forty-five. Among the members elected are Jules Simon and Eugene Pelletan. Thiers is probably defeated.

PARIS, May 25.—Dispatches from Marseilles report that there has been much excitement in that city over the elections. Large crowds paraded the streets shouting "Vive la Republique." Places of business were closed in anticipation of a visit. At last accounts order had been restored.

The result of the election in Paris and Lyons was favorable to the anti-Imperial candidates. It is reported Rochefort has been chosen. Seventy-three elections have been completed. They show the following results: Government candidates, official, elected forty-nine; Independent, nine; Democratic, three, and in the remaining twelve there was no result.

The Bourse is flat, owing to the excitement occasioned by the elections.

PARIS, Evening, May 25.—The excitement over the elections is very great, and the Boulevards are crowded with people anxious to hear the results. Further returns announce the election of eight official candidates, three independent and two democrats and two liberals in addition to those reported this morning. Raspail, Favre and Dorian are elected.

LONDON, May 25.—The Times this morning, in an editorial on the French elections, says: The chief cities repudiate the idea of an Empire, and a revival of political activity will result which condemns personal government. The restoration of Parliamentary government may conciliate the existing feeling. By such means only can the Emperor expect to mitigate an opposition which has not yet become anti-dynastic.

Additional Election Returns.

PARIS, May 25, 9 P. M.—Returns of sixty-two more completed elections are received and show the following results: Official candidates elected, forty-eight; Independent, eleven; Opposition, three; Zolliver, defeated in Paris, has been chosen for Var. David, Grevy, Periere and Schneider are re-elected. Arago is defeated. It is now considered probable the full returns will show a larger majority for the government than was anticipated. The feeling on the Bourse at the close of the day was confident and firm.

PARIS, Midnight, May 25.—All the returns received up to this hour show 190 official and 60 opposition members elected. The elections in forty-eight districts still remain undecided.

Epsom Races.

LONDON, May 25.—The Epsom races commenced to-day. The Woodcote stakes for two year olds were won by Mr. Merry's filly Sunshine, by Thorman, by beating a field of nineteen. The Rouse stakes were won by Mr. Watts's filly Mysoils, beating President Lincoln, Lord Hawthorne and six others. The Derby will be run to-morrow.

Evacuation of Rome.

The Moniteur has reports that France and Italy have completed an arrangement for the evacuation of Rome by French troops in September.

Mr. Jay in Vienna.

VIENNA, May 25.—Hon. John Jay, the new American Minister, has arrived.

Assassination.

FLORENCE, May 25.—The Austrian Consulate at Leghorn, while walking with Col. Grenville, was killed by an assassin, and Col. Grenville was wounded. The crime is said to have been prompted by motives of private revenge, and Col. Grenville was the intended victim.

Secret Drilling in Cork.

CORK, May 25.—Parties have been discovered here engaged in secret drilling with arms at night, and three men have been arrested.

Cyrus W. Field.

Cyrus W. Field has arrived here, to take the steamer from Queenstown for New York.

Doubly Bankrupt.

LONDON, May 25.—Gen. Ripley, formerly of the Confederate army, has passed through bankruptcy. His liabilities are fixed at £37,000 and his assets at £50,000.

The Triple Alliance Hoax.

LONDON, May 25.—It is definitely learned that the rumored alliance of France, England and Spain, against the United States, is without foundation.

WASHINGTON.

Doubts as to Minister McMahon's Safety—Anticipated Indian Troubles—The President at the Naval Academy—General Dyer Reassigned Chief of Ordnance—The "Northern Pacific" Railroad—Irish Republican Association.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25, 1869.

Our Minister at Paraguay.

Government is still without information from Minister McMahon, of Paraguay. Dispatches were expected by the steamer Mississippi, lately wrecked. First advices are now looked for by way of England. The opinion of ex-minister Washburne is that McMahon has been killed.

Indian Affairs.

Advices received from the plains are of a character to cause the authorities to doubt whether extended trouble with the Indians can be avoided. The arrangement with the Commissary Department for use of its stores with the Quartermaster for transportation has enabled great dispatch to be used in forwarding supplies, and these are already on their way to all of the up river posts, and it is expected that their prompt arrival will go far toward preventing outbreaks. If general hostilities can be warded off until the new agents reach their stations, it is believed that the summer will pass without a war.

The President at Annapolis

The President, Mrs. Grant, the Secretary of the Navy and George H. Stuart went over to Annapolis this morning to attend the yearly exercises at the Naval Academy. The party was received with the usual honors due the Commander-in-Chief. The President received the officers of the Academy and Board of Visitors at the quarters of Admiral Porter. He afterwards received the battalion of midshipmen, and subsequently witnessed artillery evolutions and practice. The President will visit the Academy again on the 4th of June, when the diplomas will be given.

Reassigned.

General Dyer has been reassigned as Chief of Ordnance, in consequence of the action of the late court of inquiry.

Strike Ended.

The strike of tailors in one of the city establishments because of a notice that a reduction of wages would soon be made, has ended. The proprietors agreed to the demands made by the journeymen that there should be no reduction.

Military Escort Desired.

Thomas H. Canfield, general manager of the Northern Pacific Railroad, called on Gen. Sherman to-day, and requested that a military escort might be ordered to accompany surveying parties now ready to start across the Plains. The General has taken the matter into consideration, and if troops can be spared he will probably extend the desired aid.

Irish Republicans.

A large meeting of Irishmen was held here last night, and a branch of the National Irish Republican Association was formed.

Appointed Judge Advocate.

Brevet Major J. H. Smith, formerly of Chicago, has been appointed Judge Advocate, vice Dennis, resigned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25, 1869.

OUR PARAGUAYAN MINISTER.

There is some anxiety at the State Department from the fact that no news has been received from our minister to Paraguay, General McMahon. It is thought that McMahon has been seized by Lopez and carried into the interior, where he will have no means of communicating with his friends. Minister C. A. Washburn, who knows Lopez thoroughly, is inclined to share in this opinion. Lopez at one time threatened that he would make an example of the next American Minister who came there.

BOARD OF VISITORS.

The following gentlemen compose the Board of Visitors appointed to attend the annual examination at the military academy, which convenes on the 1st of June: Gen. D. Hunter, Gen. W. Q. Gresham, Indiana; Gen. John Eaton, Tennessee; Hon. B. T. Loan, Missouri; Judge C. H. Warren, Massachusetts; Dr. W. B. Anderson, President of Rochester University, New York; Rev. R. L. Stanton, D. D., President of Miami University, Ohio.

MEETING OF COMMISSION.

The Commission to meet here to-morrow consists of eight gentlemen appointed by the President in pursuance of the act of Congress, to consult and advise as to the proper mode of expenditure of the $2,000,000 appropriated for the benefit of various Indian tribes at the last session.

ASSIGNED TO DUTY.

The officers of the Seventeenth and Forty-fourth Infantry, who were left out of service by the consolidation of those regiments, have been assigned to duty in connection with the registration and election in Virginia.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY

Is making preparations for sending out an exploring party to pass over the entire route from Lake Superior to Puget Sound. Thomas H. Canfield, general agent of the company, called on General Sherman to-day to arrange for a military escort for a portion of the distance.

The American copper producers' association promises to give a new impetus to the development and working of our valuable copper mines. It will bring together all who are interested in the subject, and will stimulate individual intelligence by presenting a fair field for its exercise. The association is to be composed of any companies, associations or individuals engaged in the mining and smelting of copper, and their object is to watch over copper interests and to collect all such information, general or statistical, as will bear favorably on the subject. In an age of such practical scientific knowledge as the present, the meeting of any number of intelligent workers cannot be without good results, and we hope that all interested in the growth of one of our most important branches of public industry will give it their cordial co-operation.

The steamer Quaker City is claimed to be under British protection, and is alleged to have gotten a clearance previous to her seizure through the British Consulate. It is also said she was chartered to carry a cargo of flour to Kingston, Jamaica, by Mr. McAndrews, a British merchant in high repute. When seized there were fifty men aboard, which the Spanish Consul contends is more than necessary to man the vessel.

Scott & Munson, of No. 9 Wall street, New York, storage merchants, disappeared last night with $65,000 in their possession, the proceeds of a fraudulent sale of 75,000 bushels of oats stored with them. The owners of the oats are not known, but supposed to be western men.

CITY MATTERS.

Meeting of the Street Committee.

A meeting of the Street Committee was held last evening and the following ordinances were prepared: For grading and paving Twenty-seventh street from Butler to the river; for opening Hatfield street from Forty-fourth to Fiftieth street; for grading and paving Miller street from Forty-third to Forty-fourth street; for opening Valley street from Fortieth to Forty-ninth street; for grading and paving Spring alley from Twenty-first to Twenty-sixth street; for grading and paving Pleasant alley from Forty-third to Forty-fourth street; for grading and paving Twenty-ninth street from Penn to Smallman street.

The Street Commissioner was authorized to put down flag-stone crossings at the corner of Fifth avenue and Grant street, and also at the corner of Sixth avenue and Smithfield street.

HELD FOR COURT.—A hearing was had before Mayor Drum last evening, in the case of Kennedy, Dunn and Baker charged with aggravated assault and battery on George Slentz, proprietor of a saloon near the terminus of the Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway. The offense was alleged to have been committed on the committed on the 17th inst., when the parties, who had been attending a picnic, entered the saloon of the prosecutor and attacked and beat him badly. The case was held for Court.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Rev. D. William Reeves, of New Brighton, in alighting from a train at Neville Station, on Saturday evening, stepped on to the south track and before he could clear it, was struck by the fast line East and knocked over an embankment. His friends who witnessed the accident immediately ran to his assistance and strange to say found him entirely uninjured.

COMMITTEE ON WOODEN BUILDINGS.—A meeting of the Committee on Wooden Buildings was held last evening, but no business of particular importance was transacted. A number of applications for the erection of wooden buildings were refused, and the Street Commissioner was instructed to have the city ordinances concerning wooden buildings strictly enforced.

BURGLARY.—The house of Mrs. Gibson, on Ohio street, Allegheny, was entered by burglars on Friday morning. By presenting a loaded pistol at the head of Mrs. Gibson, the burglars obtained possession of the keys of the house, and ransacked nearly all the rooms, after which they departed. No clue to the perpetrators of the robbery has been obtained.

FEROCIOUS DOG KILLED.—A large bull dog, belonging to Charles Schlieper, of Allegheny, severely bit a little daughter of Mr. Siebold on Monday last. The dog had been muzzled, but managed in some way to work it off. It was subsequently killed.

SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS.—Mrs. Hannah Cuff, who keeps a small grocery in the Sixth ward, Allegheny, has been returned for selling liquor to minors and on Sunday. Mayor Drum will investigate the case.

STILL LIVING.—Patrick Fagan, who was struck in the face with a stone, on Saturday night, in the hands of James Bookley, and severely injured, was still living at last accounts. Bookley has not been apprehended.

LECTURE TO GENTLEMEN.—Dr. Gleason lectures this evening to gentlemen only, on the Origin of Animal and Vegetable Life, in Excelsior Hall, Allegheny city, splendidly illustrated with manikins, etc.

UNWARRANTED ABUSE.—Ellen Reno alleged in an information before Mayor Brush, yesterday, that James Porter had wantonly assaulted her by striking her in the right eye and on the head with his fist. A warrant was issued.

THE ALLEGHENY COMMONS.—The work of improving the Allegheny Commons is progressing rapidly, and the North Commons are beginning to present a charming appearance.

THE LICENSE BOARD.

Wholesale Violation of the Law—Dereliction of the Commissioners in Regard to Revoking Licenses.

Some Facts for Commissioner Hamilton.

We have already shed some light on the manner in which licenses to sell liquor are granted by the Commissioners, and the fact that one of the three members of the Board (Mr. George Hamilton, who has served nine years, and is a candidate for re-nomination) controls absolutely the granting of every license in the (old) city, has startled not a few of our citizens, and set everybody to thinking. Five hundred persons to-day hold his license to sell, and every vender of liquors, from the owners of the stately hotels and elegant saloons, down to the lowest doggery keeper, in the old ten wards, is dependent upon Mr. Hamilton, and him alone, for the power to continue the traffic. If there is an unnecessary house, or a disorderly house, where liquors are vended, Mr. Commissioner Hamilton is responsible for it.

The granting of licenses, however, is but one phase of this question. There is another, and perhaps an equally important one, which we now propose to discuss. The Board, under a very liberal construction of the law—and, as we think, in violation of its spirit—parcel out the granting of licenses, each taking a grand division of the county, and each being supreme and independent in his own district. The power to grant, however, is not the only one conferred by the law. There is also the power to revoke; and, extraordinary as it may seem, we are informed that the Board has never once exercised it!

There are certain provisions of the license law which are habitually violated, and which, were the Commissioners not totally derelict, should be made to work a revocation of the licenses of scores of the very worst places in the community. We learn, from his Honor, Mayor Brush, that over twenty liquor sellers have been returned, within the past two or three days, at his office alone, for selling liquor on Sunday. Nearly all of these offenders—it may be all of them—hold Mr. Hamilton's license to sell, and we wish now to direct his attention to a part of the law which he has thus far entirely ignored.

Section eleven of the act of 21st March, 1867, is as follows: The Board of License may, of their own motion, at any time, and shall, upon a magistrate's report, summon before them any person or persons licensed as aforesaid; if, upon inquiry, they shall become satisfied that such person or persons so licensed, has, or have, violated any of the provisions of the act, they shall revoke, cancel and annul said license of such person, which they are hereby empowered to do, and to declare the license fee forfeited; upon any such inquiry the Board of License shall have power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses for or against the party, and examine them under oath.

From the opening clause of the above section it will be seen that Commissioner Hamilton is not done with a tavern keeper when he has granted the license and pocketed the fee. The law holds him further responsible. He must see that he obeys the provisions of the law, in case of failure to do so, in any particular, it is his duty to revoke the license. [Under the law it is clearly the duty of "the Board" to attend to this matter, but as they have cut "the Board" up into three separate boards, for convenience sake, we shall speak of them in this sense.]

Let us state, then, what are "the provisions of this act," alluded to in the section above quoted. They are these:

No person who, within one year preceding his application, has been under sentence for any felony, or during such time shall be imprisoned for any violation of this license law, shall be entitled to a license by said board. Persons licensed shall, as far as in them lies, prevent all disorderly conduct in and about their premises; they shall not sell, or give away, any spirituous liquors, ale, wine or beer, to any apprentice, or person under age, without written consent of master, parent or guardian; they shall not sell to any habitual drunkard, or to any intoxicated person, under forfeiture of license; they shall not sell to any husband against request of wife or to any wife against request of husband; and they shall not sell on Sundays.

It is known to every citizen who has the most superficial knowledge of the manner in which our drinking saloons are conducted, that nearly all of the above provisions are habitually violated. It is common practice to sell to minors, to habitual drunkards, to persons already intoxicated, etc., and the clause in regard to selling on Sunday is violated by wholesale, as Mayor Brush and police can testify.

What is the remedy for all this? Let there be a more rigid and faithful administration of the license law by the License Commissioners. Let them revoke licenses as well as grant them. Let it be understood that no tavern keeper offending in any particular, shall escape cancellation of his license, and the law will be feared and obeyed. We would suggest to Mayor Brush that he turn over all these Sunday liquor sellers to the consideration of Commissioner Hamilton. It is made his duty, "on his own motion," to inquire into these violations, and annul the licenses so forfeited; but he has never made a single effort to enforce this part of the law. We would not intimate that because no money can be made by revoking a license is the reason Mr. Hamilton has not acted. The obligation, however, is imperative, "upon a magistrate's report"—the law, in this case, declaring that he "shall" investigate the matter. It may hurt his chances for a renomination to cancel twenty or thirty licenses just now, but if he has been acting in ignorance of the law thus far, it is high time that he should be suspended. No better argument could be advanced in favor of a change, unless it be the fact that he has wilfully and knowingly neglected his duty in this respect.

There is much more to be said on this license question—but enough for the present.

Preparations for the Observance of Decoration Day.

The indications are that Decoration Day will be generally observed in the city and vicinity on Saturday. It is stated that a number of prominent ladies and gentlemen are about preparing a petition to the business houses of the city to suspend operations on that day. It is probable that the request will be complied with.

The managers of the Pittsburgh Sanitary Soldiers' Home, in the Ninth ward, have made arrangements to provide for the accommodation of the children from the Soldiers Orphans' School at Uniontown, who will arrive in the city on Friday evening, and participate in the ceremonies on Saturday.

Mr. E. G. Krehan has been appointed to designate the graves of soldiers in the surrounding cemeteries. He will visit the different graveyards of the South Side, in order to designate the graves of deceased soldiers, on Friday afternoon. Zimmerman's graveyard at one o'clock, Methodist graveyard at two o'clock, Hirzberger graveyard at three o'clock, German Catholic graveyard at four o'clock. Relatives of deceased soldiers are requested to meet Mr. Krehan at those hours.

A WORD TO GROCERS AND BAKERS.

Mr. Wm. Domer, Agent of the Country Milk Company, has kindly offered to supply the milk needed for the entertainment of the Soldiers orphans, who will visit the city on Friday and remain until Saturday evening, to participate in the decoration of their father's graves. The ladies of the Decoration Committee take this method of acknowledging, and accepting with thanks his generous offer, and would at the same time remind our grocers and bakers that hams, beef, cheese, coffee, sugar, rice, crackers and bread are also necessary for the entertainment of the children of our fallen braves, and feel confident that those who have always lent a helping hand will contribute liberally on the present occasion. All articles should be sent to Masonic Hall on Friday afternoon.

Prize Fighters Punished.

On last Sunday evening two men, named John Driscoll and Bartholomew Ragan, visited the bank of the Allegheny river, at the foot of Fourteenth street, and there indulged in a prize fight on a small scale. They had taken off their coats and exchanged a couple of blows, when officer Reznor appeared upon the scene, and they, together with a crowd of about five hundred men, women and children fled and escaped arrest. Information was made against them, and they were arrested and taken before the Mayor yesterday. At the hearing, it appeared the parties resided together in the same house on Fourteenth street, and their families not passing the time harmoniously, they resolved to settle the difficulty in the manner described, if it would take them all summer. Twenty-eight dollars and twenty-five cents was the amount assessed on each individual for their Sabbath desecration, and on paying over that amount they were released from custody.

JUVENILE CONCERT.—Prof. Walter B. Slack, with two hundred singers, selected from the five ward schools over which he presides as the teacher of music, will give his second grand concert next Friday evening, in the spacious hall of the old Third Ward School House, Grant street. In addition to the charming singing of the children, Prof. Evans, the noted elocutionist, will read some patriotic and humorous pieces, and the Allegheny Quartette Club will discourse some of their choicest music. Altogether, it promises to be a charming entertainment.

POLICEMEN DISCHARGED.—Mayor Brush on Monday discharged a member of the police force for drunkenness while on duty. Yesterday the services of another officer were dispensed with, not for drunkenness, but for incompetency and refusing to "face the enemy" when called on to do so. His offense was committed on Sunday evening, in the Twelfth ward. Several citizens called on him to arrest a couple of men for drunkenness, but he declined doing so, and being reported to his Honor was discharged, as stated. It was his first offense, but that did not save him.

PROF. LEONHART'S NEW WORK.—The readers of fiction will be pleased to learn that Prof. Leonhart is about to issue, by subscription, his last work, entitled "The Pirate's Legacy," which is one of the most stirring and interesting novels of the day. Those wishing to subscribe can leave their names at No. 93 Smithfield street.

HELD TO ANSWER.—C. Johnson, charged before Mayor Brush with stealing a lot of rope from Oswell Keller's coal works, on the Monongahela river, had a hearing yesterday afternoon, and was held in the sum of $300 bail for his appearance at Court. His alleged accomplice has not yet been arrested.

PERSONAL.—We understand that Messrs. Edward House, member of Common Council from the Second ward, and Christ. Yeager will sail for Europe, on Saturday of next week, in the steamer City of Paris. They design making an extended tour through Europe.

DECORATION DAY.

Meeting of the Executive Committee of the G. A. R. yesterday. Route of the Procession, etc., etc.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic was held at City Hall yesterday afternoon to make further arrangements in regard to decoration day.

Gen. A. L. Pearson occupied the chair and Captain W. B. Cook acted as Secretary.

Maj. Montooth presented a communication from Mansfield, stating that the residents there desired to participate in the ceremonies on Decoration Day.

Capt. Cook read a programme which had been agreed upon in that place, at a meeting held in the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening. The soldiers are requested to meet at the School House on Thursday, to organize and make further arrangements. Rev. J. A. Snodgrass has been appointed Orator to speak at the Cemetery, in Mansfield. Mr. Marshal stated that it would be inconvenient for the people residing in that locality to attend the proceedings in the city on that day in consequence of the distance and as all desired to participate. On motion of Mr. Reynolds the people in Mansfield and vicinity were constituted the fourth division and Col. J. W. Ballantine was appointed Chief Marshal.

Terry's band was assigned to the right of the division in this city.

Mr. H. A. Collier read a poem which had been written by O. T. Bennett for decoration day. On motion it was adopted by the committee, and Mr. Collier was appointed to read it at the public meeting.

The following is a list of the officers of the procession, and a mention of the route selected:

Chief Marshal, E. A. Montooth; Chief of Staff, Wm. Blakeley; Adjutant General, H. A. Collier. Aids: John H. Stewart, Martin Schaffer, B. F. Kennedy, Robert Pollock, W. J. McGratty, B. F. Jennings, C. Eberhardt, J. D. Walker, W. C. Cooke, B. Galliseth, Hiram P. Callow, Foster Alward, J. K. McLanahan, Thomas B. Cinley.

Aids to the Chief Marshal will wear regulation cap, white gloves, G. A. R. badge, army sash around the waist and belt, black crape on left arm, with red, white and blue ribbon attached.

The order of formation will be: 1st, Police; 2d, Band; 3d, Chief Marshal and Staff; 4th, Soldiers' Orphans; 5th, First Division; 6th, Second Division; 7th, Third Division.

The officers of the First Division are: Chief Marshal, A. P. Callow; Chief of Staff, J. P. McHendry; Adjutant General, A. Patterson; Surgeon General, W. B. Hezlep. Aids—J. C. Bartley, W. R. Johnson, James Greneb, W. K. McClintock, R. M. Blair, W. C. McKelvey. The uniforms will be of this, as well as of all the divisions: Regulation cap, white gloves; badge, G. A. R. arm crape, red ribbon attached.

The officers of the Second Division are: Chief Marshal, J. G. McConnell; Chief of Staff, Geo. S. Smith; Adjutant General, Samuel W. Reynolds. Aids—J. C. Macconnell, Lee S. Smith, S. W. Reynolds, Jos. H. Gray, Alf. M. Kerr, H. L. Young, J. T. Cunningham, Charles F. Porter, J. C. Paul, J. D. Forrester, Wm. M. Kirby, J. S. Easton, A. J. Harbaugh, Samuel Kilgore.

The officers of the Third Division are: Chief Marshal, G. S. Wood; Chief of Staff, D. A. Jones; Adjutant General, W. E. Weber; Surgeon General, J. H. Roberts. Aids: Chaplain Pressly Brown, S. A. Barr, G. B. Van Emon, A. McKee, P. Deniel, J. Eichley, G. Quar, R. R. Jones, J. W. Ballantine, M. U. Felker, Jas. Duncan, A. Ammon, I. P. Heizel, H. B. Miller, N. K. Miller, J. W. Kerr, R. M. Mahon, Louis Fritz, A. M. Arnholt, Chas. Rink, H. Meisterfeld, J. W. Carl.

Mansfield, Temperanceville and the adjoining townships will constitute the Fourth Division, with Col. J. W. Ballantine as Marshall.

Each division will be headed by a portion of the Grand Army of the Republic, and following will be firemen, civic organizations, disabled soldiers in carriages and other carriages.

The First Division will form on Water street, right resting on Waterstreet. The Second will form on Market street, right resting on Water street. The Third will form on Wood street, right resting on Water street.

The route will be up Smithfield street to Third avenue, up Third avenue to Grant street, along Grant to Fifth avenue, down Fifth avenue to Market street, along Market to St. Clair (now Sixth) street, along Sixth street to Penn, along Penn street to Wayne, and there halt. The first division will then countermarch, and proceed to Allegheny City, by way of Penn and St. Clair street (now Sixth street). The second division will proceed to Allegheny and St. Mary's Cemeteries by the way of Penn street, and the third division will move up Wayne to Liberty, down Liberty to Smithfield and thence to Birmingham. The procession to be in line at ten o'clock precisely.

The resignation of Captain Callow, as the Committee on Advertising, was presented and accepted.

On motion of Captain Cook, a Committee on Advertising was appointed. The following gentlemen were appointed members of the Committee: H. A. Collier, Augustus Beckert and David Jones. Captain Cook said that the ladies had shown a great deal of earnestness in the matter of conducting the floral department. He would move that a committee of three be appointed to assist the ladies in the matter of the preparation of the flowers and wreaths at Masonic Hall on Friday. Adopted, and the following committee appointed: Capt. Foster Alward, Wm. M. Dalgleish and H. P. Logan. The following committee was appointed to designate the graves to be decorated in Allegheny and St. Mary's Cemeteries: Capt. John G. McConnell, A. J. Harbaugh, John Chislett, John Horner and John Homer. The report of the committee on adopted, and the committee on finance was instructed to pay in all moneys collected to Lee S. Smith, Treasurer, to be devoted to the payment of the expenses of the Finance Committee. General Pearson read a communication from the Secretary of War stating that cannon and ammunition would be furnished at the Allegheny arsenal for the firing of a national salute. The Committee on Arrangements were instructed to furnish two carriages for the judiciary of the city. Gen. T. A. Rowley was appointed a member of the Committee on Finance.

On motion adjourned.

The War on Sunday Liquor Sellers Continues.

The war on the Sunday liquor sellers continues without abatement, and the number of informations made before Mayor Brush by Robert Hague, Chief of Police, shows that that officer was not idle on Sunday last. Eight informations were made on Sunday, three yesterday, and there are seven or eight yet to be taken. The eleven tavern keepers returned thus far are as follows: Mrs. McBride, James Lanaghan, Chas. Winger, H. & J. Elkin, Geo. Ewing, J. P. Person; M. Frounholz, Mrs. Shovelin, Fred. Mueller, Leopold Hart and Mrs. Murphy. In regard to the suit for penalty, there is a criminal information in each of the above cases, which will be sent to Court. Some fourteen or fifteen were returned last week, and among them H. & J. Elkin, who, as will be seen, are returned again for selling last Sunday. For their first offense, they paid the penalty, $50 and costs, but now they will have to answer at Court. The Mayor has determined, henceforth, to send all the cases to Court, believing that the best course for securing the better enforcement of the Sunday law relating to the sale of this kind of traffic. Saloon keepers will perceive that it is the design of the Mayor to have the law observed, rather than the fund of the Board of Guardians replenished, and as imprisonment in the county jail may not be particularly beneficial to their health, they will consult their own interests by complying with its provisions.

State and County Taxes.

Although the County Treasurer has been ready to receive the taxes since the first of the month, comparatively few persons have called to settle their accounts and save the percentage. To many persons engaged in business, who have a large amount of tax to pay, it is quite an object to use the money until the last day of grace; but there are hundreds of persons who have the amount lying idle, who would find it much to their own convenience, and might greatly facilitate business in the Treasurer's office, to pay at once. The present office of the Treasurer is entirely too small for the business, there not being sufficient counter room to lay out all the duplicates, and consequently when the rush comes in June and July, the inconvenience of paying will be much greater than in former years, before there were so many districts and taxpayers. All those who can, should step up to the office before the jam commences, where they will find the Treasurer and a full corps of competent clerks to wait on them.

The Result of Interference.

On Sunday afternoon officer Joseph Waugh, stationed at Lawrenceville, arrested a man named McLaughlin for drunkenness. He was proceeding to the lock-up with his prisoner, when two men named Michael Mahoney and Leopold Hart interfered, abused the officer terribly, and finally released McLaughlin. There was no assistance at hand at the time, and the officer prudently waited until he returned off duty, when he made information before the Mayor, charging Hart and Mahoney with disorderly conduct, and warrants for their arrest were issued. Mahoney was arrested yesterday, and in the afternoon had a hearing before Mayor Brush, which resulted in his being fined $25 and costs. Hart has not been apprehended, but it is presumed he will be similarly treated when captured. There are also two charges of selling liquor on Sunday against Hart, preferred by Chief Hague—one for the penalty and the other a criminal proceeding. Several officers are now after him, and he can not escape justice much longer.

Protection to Police Officers.

An evening or two since Officer M. B. Emmett, one of the most gentlemanly and efficient policemen on Mayor Brush's force, had occasion to pass Patterson's livery stable, on Fourth avenue, when Michael Mahan, employed at the stable, attacked him with vile epithets and abused him terribly. The officer politely requested him to desist, warning him that he would have to arrest him unless he did. Mahan defied the officer to touch him, and summoning one or two others, who, in the event of the officer attempting to make the arrest, would undoubtedly have assisted Mahan, continued his tirade of abuse. The official withdrew and going before the Mayor made information against Mahan, and took out a warrant for his arrest. Yesterday he was brought up, and after being remanded by the Mayor that it was his intention to protect his officers from the insults of such fellows, charged eight dollars and twenty-five dollars, on the payment of which he was released.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A man named Peter Higgins, who was employed at some coal works in Soho, while coupling some coal cars yesterday was caught between the bumpers and his shoulder dislocated. He was attended by Dr. Donnelly, aed although his injuries are serious he will recover.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The performance of the Chapman Sisters last evening in "Cinderella," was one of the most enjoyable of the season. Bishop's "make-up" and performance of the "gushing Clorinda" is far superior to that of Leffingwell. "Fra Diavolo" to-night.

THEATER.—"Ixion, or the Man at the Wheel," was performed to a large sized audience last evening. It will be repeated to-night.

MASONIC HALL.—Haverley's Minstrels had a large and delighted audience last evening. They perform again to-night, with a change of programme.

KEYSTONE RINK.—Another Velocipede Masquerade takes place at the Rink Thursday evening, May 27th. There will be a great variety of new costumes, and the exhibition will be one that will give satisfaction to all. These masquerades have always a large attendance of ladies and children, and the Rink will no doubt be crowded Thursday night. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents.

EAST BIRMINGHAM COUNCIL.

The Paving of Streets—Monongahela Valley Railroad—Other Matters.

An adjourned meeting of the Council of East Birmingham was held on Tuesday evening, May 25th, 1869, Burgess Ammon in the chair.

Members present—Messrs. Beck, Walters, Miller and Jones.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Jones, from the Street Committee, reported that a majority of the property holders residing on Carey alley had signed the petition for the paving of said alley, and he recommended that it be paved to the school house gate.

Mr. Miller moved that an ordinance be drawn authorizing the paving of the alley as far as the point mentioned, which was adopted.

The clerk read a petition from citizens residing on Larkins alley between John and Railroad streets, requesting Councils to authorize the paving of the same.

Mr. Beck moved that the petition be referred to the Street Committee with instructions to report on Ordinance at next meeting. Carried.

Mr. Beck moved that the Solicitor be instructed to report an opinion at next meeting, whether under the new paving law, the issue of bonds for work done or in progress before its enactment is allowed. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Jones suggested that the Council take some action in reference to the filling up of a pond on the property of William McKnight, on Joseph street.

Mr. Beck stated that a resolution requesting Mr. McKnight to fill said pond had been passed last fall, and he would move that in case the work was not proceeded with at once, the Council authorize the work to be done at his expense. The motion was adopted.

MONONGAHELA VALLEY RAILROAD.

Mr. Jones submitted a supplement to the ordinance granting to the Monongahela Valley Railroad Company the right of way over Josephine street, which renders the first ordinance null and void, in case the Company do not accept the terms and deliver to the borough articles of agreement within sixty days.

Mr. Beck moved that the time be changed to "on or before Tuesday, the 8th of June," the regular meeting night of Council, which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Walters, the ordinance as amended was passed finally. It will be found in another column.

Mr. Jones also submitted a supplementary ordinance relating to the better protection of streets in the borough, and holding property holders who open streets for the purpose of putting in gas or water responsible for the restoring of said street into as good condition as before it was torn up. Heretofore the plumbers doing the work were liable, but the property holders take their place and have to apply in person or by agent to the Regulator for a permit to open any street.

Mr. Jones moved that the old ordinance be repealed, and that the Solicitor draw up a new ordinance and submit the same at next meeting, which was carried.

Mr. Beck moved that the Treasurer of the borough be instructed to draw the amount due from the Birmingham Passenger Railway Company, as soon as the claim was adjusted by the Finance Committee of City Councils.

Mr. Walters moved that the Fire Committee be instructed to consider the matter of appointing a watchman for the Walton Engine House, and report at next meeting. Carried.

On motion, adjourned.

LAY DELEGATION.—A meeting of the laity of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held in Smithfield street church, corner Seventh avenue, on Monday evening next, when the question of lay delegation will be discussed by J. W. F. White and others.

Can it be Good?

This question is often asked. Some persons cannot credit the idea of Jenkins & Bro. selling Fancy White Wheat Flour, manufactured for the city trade, at one dollar and twenty cents below prices advertised by our mills in market reports, and their celebrated White River at about two dollars less. No wonder an effort is made to keep the trade when such prices are obtained.

STORRS' PATENT FILE HANDLES.
A PERFECT FILE HANDLE.
Its excellence is so manifest that it hardly needs explanation.
Whilst other Handles require time and care to fit them, are often split and thrown away without use, are always liable to work loose and come off, thereby causing great annoyance and often painful wounds to the user, these Handles are free from all such objections.
They are made of four sizes, adapted to all kinds of Files, are quickly attached, readily changed from one File to another, invariably hold the File securely and straight, and are very durable.
The screw is hardened and cuts a thread on the tang of the File. It should be firmly screwed on, holding it by the end flattened for that purpose. Should it ever be left in the wood on taking out the File it can be turned out by Screwdriver.

The Daily Commercial.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26, 1869.

WE understand that THOMAS EWING, Esq. has withdrawn from the contest for Common Pleas Judge. This leaves only two candidates in the field—Gen. F. H. COLLIER and WM. B. NEGLEY, Esq.

WE are authorized to withdraw the name of Col. J. B. COPELAND, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer. This leaves Major DENNISTON a clear field, and he will be renominated by acclamation. The opposition was not such as to raise a doubt as to his success, but it will be a more fitting acknowledgement of the ability and fidelity which he has displayed in the office, if the convention tenders him a unanimous renomination.

THE proceedings of the Republicans of the Twenty-first ward, published herewith, will doubtless be pleasant reading to the rings that have undertaken to run the political machinery in opposition to overwhelming popular sentiment. It will be perceived that the meeting took bold ground against the present system of making nominations, and indorsed the COMMERCIAL with a will. The people are moving, and it is time for the rings to get out of the way.

SOME days since we suggested that the Governor of Pennsylvania owed it to himself to make public the names of the gentlemen through whose influence he was induced to reconsider his revocation of a pardon previously issued to WM. J. ROBINSON, convicted at the last term of the Quarter Sessions, of felonious assault and battery, and sentenced to the Penitentiary. The propriety of our suggestion has been acquiesced in, and we print elsewhere the names of those who, in the exercise of an undoubted right, recommended the pardon.

THE question of the day is, shall the Republican party be tied to the dead and rotten carcass of the iniquitous Legislature of last winter? The rings, with objects that can be achieved only by placing the old set or those that are as bad as they are, in nomination, are laboring to accomplish that object. The people at large, little used to working the machinery of conventions, await the result, prepared to support good nominations that answer the question in the negative, and equally ready to rise in open rebellion if nominations are made that answer it in the affirmative.

THE English press is disposed to do full credit to American enterprise in constructing the Pacific Railroad. Its comments on the "last rail" are likely to prove very gratifying to the American Eagle and give that noble bird a new idea of its consequence. Nor are the material results too highly estimated. For instance, the London News concludes its comments as follows:

> Thus the whole of this formless wilderness will be subdued to man's occupancy and use. Instead of dying like a dead mass in the bosom of the Republic, it will become instinct with life, the iron nerves of civilization will grow through it from the great central backbone now formed, and the vast resources of the Republic will not only be made more available by concentration and communication, but will undergo indefinite increase.

THE leaders who have undertaken to read out of the party those Republicans who will not support candidates whose nomination will be an indorsement of the last winter's legislature, begin to find that after they have exhausted the reading-out process, there will be nobody left but themselves. Hence they begin to haul in their horns. Least profitable of all do they find the violent denunciation of the COMMERCIAL, in which they for a time indulged. Having drawn the lines, they perceive the great body of the people arrayed in a solid column supporting the COMMERCIAL in opposition to the corruptionists. If in their madness they choose to run the machinery of the Conventions in opposition to the popular will, their ticket will not be supported by enough to be counted among the scattering. Go ahead, gentlemen, the people have fully determined on their course.

HON. MILES HUMPHREYS.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

While approving of your course relative to nominations, especially for the Legislature, I beg to suggest that the Hon. Miles Humphreys may very properly be exempted from the criticisms which are urged with such crushing force in favor of an entire new set of candidates. I know Mr. Humphreys, and as a reformer myself and an out-and-out anti-ring man up to the hub, I can conscientiously support him for a second term. I hope you will agree with me in this, as I do with you in every respect relating to the necessity for reform and the course you recommend to secure it.

A NIGHT AND DAY REPUBLICAN.

Our correspondent has afforded us the opportunity for saying what we cannot better express than by declaring that we fully agree with him concerning Mr. HUMPHREYS. Should the convention place him in nomination, as it is quite likely to do, we judge that he would command the support of the Republican party—he being the only member of the old delegation of whom this can be said.

LESSONS FOR THE RING.

In Philadelphia, not long ago, a "ring" set up the nominations for city and county offices, and the result was that instead of the whole Republican ticket receiving from three thousand to five thousand majority, it was mostly defeated, and the remainder elected by the "skin of their teeth."

In the city of Cleveland a few months ago, a Republican "ring," in defiance of the wishes of the people, nominated certain men for office. Their action was repudiated at the polls, and instead of the ticket having twelve hundred majority, as it otherwise would have had, the Democrats carried off the most important and lucrative offices.

In Cincinnati, at the late municipal election, the honest masses nominated a Reform ticket, and defeated the most important nominations made by the "ring."

The Republican party in Chicago, which is in a large majority in that city and county, is now in danger of disintegration from the operations of the "ring." A few nights since the members of the "ring," who are known as "Tite Barnacles," met in a corner saloon, and made up a "slate" for city and county officers, from constable up to member of Congress, and resolved, like the corruptionists of Allegheny county, to read every man out of the party who refused to support it. Commenting on this action, the Chicago Republican says:

> The rumblings and mutterings that portend a coming storm can be heard from all quarters of the political horizon. Men who never before bolted a regular party nomination, who have always stood at the polls in wet weather and dry, and who never asked or desired office or pay therefor, openly asseverate that if any cut-and-dried-for-month nominations are imposed upon them, through the means of the "ring" machinery, and by the manipulation of ring caucuses, they will assuredly bolt the same, either going over openly to the enemy, or by the means of a people's ticket. * * * They (the people) look upon most of the great questions for which the Republican party was organized as having been closed, and are not willing that the organization itself shall be now used as a mere hospital for the nourishment and support of the greedy cormorants who compose the ring. And they feel that if so used, they will be just as ready to tear down as they were to build up that great combination of all shades of political principles which has controlled the legislation of the country for the past ten years.

ONCE MORE, WHAT ANSWER?

In 1867, GEORGE WILSON was elected member of the House of Representatives of this State, and at the session following was Chairman of the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform. The session of that winter was famous for its extravagance as well as bare-faced corruption. Over one hundred subordinate officers of the House drew pay from the State Treasury; and this, too, without much regard to the services rendered, some of the dead-heads having been at Harrisburg not at all, except for the few concluding days of the session to receive their share of the plunder. To allay the discontent and indignation of the people, Mr. WILSON, before the adjournment, brought forward a reform bill, whereby the number of the House officers was reduced to thirty-four. The people accepted this as a pledge of economy in the future, and Mr. WILSON was re-elected. On the first day of the succeeding session, Mr. WILSON went into caucus and contributed by his vote and influence to increase the number to sixty-one. There were sixty-one Republican members in the House, and so when thirty-four offices came to be divided among sixty-one members, it was found that twenty-seven would be unprovided for. To get over the difficulty, it was proposed and carried that twenty-seven dead heads be added to the regular number. It was a stroke that indicated Mr. WILSON's resources as a legislator, fidelity as a guardian of the public Treasury, and sagacity as a retrencher and reformer; more especially as he was to be Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means of the body of which he was thus made the leader, and over which he had aspired to preside as Speaker. There was no sort of pretense that there was anything for the twenty-seven dead heads to do that the thirty-four could not do, except draw six or eight hundred dollars each from the State Treasury at the end of the session of about one hundred days. Although in fact it was nothing better than deliberate robbery of the State treasury, the opening of the door for every description of plunderers to rush in, and the erection of a standard of legislative and personal morality that gave a shock to the entire State, it got the caucus out of a difficulty. Each Republican had a duplicate in the lobby, and everybody was satisfied. It is true that the Senate disagreed to this nullification of a law of the State by a single branch of the Legislature. But Mr. WILSON took on himself the responsibility of the action, and thenceforth, as chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, devoted himself to securing the money for the dead heads, equally with the regular officers of the House. Having got the Appropriation bill where it would fail unless the dead-heads were given their plunder, he carried his point. It was the crowning glory of his legislative career, and the dead heads manifested their appreciation of his services and of his abilities as a retrencher and reformer by presenting him with a silver pitcher. And Mr. WILSON is now asking the Republicans of Allegheny to promote him from the House to the Senate—a wider field for the exercise of his extraordinary abilities.

THE QUAKER MISSION.

President GRANT, in his inaugural, indicated the just and wise policy for the treatment of the aborigines, as well as the difficulties surrounding the subject. "The proper treatment," he said, "of the aboriginal occupants of this land, the Indian, is one deserving of careful study. I will favor any course towards them which tends to their civilization, Christianization and ultimate citizenship." The Secretary of the Interior is in full sympathy with the President on the subject, and the result of their "careful study" and consultation with the friends of the Indian has the prompt co-operation of Congress, and the universal approval of all good people, the adoption of measures preliminary to a radical change in the system of management which has heretofore prevailed in the Indian Department.

The President and Secretary Cox, having expressed their hearty approval, the following sections were added to the usual Indian appropriation bill just before its passage:

> "That there be appropriated the further sum of two millions of dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to enable the President to maintain the peace among and with the various tribes, bands, and parties of Indians, and to promote civilization among said Indians, bring them where practicable upon reservations, relieve their necessities, and encourage their efforts at self-support; a report of all expenditures under this appropriation to be made in detail to Congress in December next; and for the purpose of enabling the President to execute the powers conferred by this act, he is hereby authorized, at his discretion, to organize a Board of Commissioners, to consist of not more than ten persons, to be selected by him from men eminent for their intelligence and philanthropy, to serve without pecuniary compensation, who may under his direction exercise joint control with the Secretary of the Interior over the disbursement of the appropriations made by this act, or any part thereof that the President may designate; and to pay the necessary expenses of transportation, subsistence and clerk hire of said Commissioners while actually engaged in said service, there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.
> "SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, that nothing in this act contained, or in any of the provisions thereof, shall be so construed as to ratify or approve any treaty made with any tribes, bands or parties of Indians, since the twentieth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven."

The refusal of the Senate to ratify any more treaties, indicates an important feature in the new policy. The Indians are no longer to be treated as independent nations, capable of making treaties, but as wards or proteges of the Government, requiring and entitled to care and protection, and capable through civilization and christianization of reaching the privileges of citizenship.

The following letter which we find printed in the report of the Philadelphia Committee, which visited Washington in behalf of the Indians, indicates in part what is expected of the Commission.

> WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15, 1869.
>
> DEAR SIR: The President has directed me to invite you to become one of the Commission provided for by the late act of Congress to act as auxiliary to this Department in the supervision of the work of gathering the Indians upon reservations, &c.
>
> The Commission will serve without pay, except for expenses actually incurred in traveling, and it is expected to act both as a consulting board of advisers and (through their sub-committees) as inspectors of the agencies, &c., of the Indian country.
>
> The design of those who suggested the Commission was that something like a Christian Commission should be established, having the civilization of the Indians in view, and laboring to stimulate public interest in this work, whilst also co-operating with the department in the specific purpose mentioned.
>
> The following persons have been requested to become members of the board with you: Hon. John V. Farwell, Chicago; George H. Stuart, Philadelphia; James E. Yeatman, St. Louis, William E. Dodge, New York, E. S. Tobey, Boston; and Wm. Welsh, Philadelphia.
>
> Perhaps two others will be added, and as soon as answers are received, a preliminary meeting will be called here.
>
> I am very respectfully, your obedient servant,
>
> J. D. COX, Secretary.
>
> FELIX BRUNOT, Pittsburgh.

The preliminary meeting of the Commission is to be held in Washington today, when the whole subject will be taken up, and in consultation with the President and Secretary of the Interior, a distinct line of policy and work will be laid out for the season.

The task before the Commission is one of magnitude. The supervision of the various agencies, "joint control" of the disbursements with the Secretary of the Interior, (which means the prevention of the villainous robbery of the fund, which has heretofore been the rule,) devising plans for gathering the Indians into reservations, inspiring them with confidence in regard to the intentions of the Government, and hope and confidence as to the possible future of their race, inciting individuals and tribes to efforts for their own elevation and support, and protecting them in their efforts and guarding them against the adverse influences which have been suffered hitherto to drag the Indian into lower depths than his original heathenism. Some one has said that the Indian can only be Christianized at the tail of the plow. Any attempt to Christianize by means of Government agents will fail as heretofore; but the teachings of faithful Christian missionaries, who take up the work for the love of it, and are sustained by their respective churches for the same motive which sends the Gospel to the far less tractable savages in Africa, or the isles of the sea, will meet with success. To incite the Christian churches of the country to this missionary work among the heathen at our own doors seems to be another part of the duty designed for the commissioners.

The President, in his humane measures, has the full sympathy of the country, and the commissioners will be sustained in the measures they may devise, by all good men. That the new regime of good faith and honest dealings toward the Indians will be followed by the aspersions and cursings of the bad men and thieves who have lived by plundering them, is to be expected.

IN all ages, and amid all emergencies, the political corruptionists of the era have had a peculiar faculty in picturing everything in rainbow colors. Those malcontents—the reformers—it has been their constant cry, are bent solely on destruction—sometimes of the Church, again of the State, but now it is the party that is endangered. They admit defects in party management, and corruption in legislation, but it is so much trouble to reform the evils, that the existing status had better remain unchanged. They will quote you precedent to sustain this fraud, and prove that the opposite party has been guilty of greater enormities. Of what use, they cry, is it to raise such a dust? Things are getting along smoothly. We are in now, and this terrible bobbery may put us all out. Well, suppose it does. The country can thrive without you, under an honest policy certainly as well as it does with you, by a corrupt policy. Our people are not of the stand still order. Progress is the rule of the world, and just now progress takes the shape of political reform. For every corrupt politician there are a hundred honest citizens, and if every thing is lovely to the corruptionist it is hideous to the citizen. The question is simply, who shall rule: a dishonest minority or an honest majority?

NEW BOOKS.

LIVING THOUGHTS OF LEADING THINKERS: A Thesaurus. By S. P. LINN, A. M. Pittsburgh: J. R. Foster & Co.

This volume, of 400 pages, reflects credit in its typographical beauty and general elegance of execution on the Pittsburgh publishing house whose imprint it bears. Mr. Linn, the collator of these "living thoughts," dedicates the work to Prof. Wilson, of the Western Theological Seminary, as "the earnest student and the eloquent divine, whose heart is as warm as his life is christian and noble." For the most part the pages are occupied by the brief, pithy utterances of living men. Nor has local wisdom been neglected, for we find many "wise saws and modern instances" attributed to the press of the Smoky City, as well as quotations from the writings and pulpit utterances of Doctor Jacobus, Prof. S. J. Wilson, Dr. Paxton, Bishop Simpson, Rev. S. C. Logan, Rev. C. A. Dickey and others. The book is for sale by subscription. We can commend it as one of the most meritorious of the kind before the public.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Citizens Meeting in the Twenty-first Ward---Delegate System Condemned---The Commercial's Course Indorsed, &c.

At a meeting of the citizens of the Twenty-first ward, held at the Wigwam, on Monday evening, George Finley, Esq., presiding, the following preamble and resolutions were presented, and after some discussion were unanimously adopted:

THE DELEGATE SYSTEM.

WHEREAS, It is but fair and democratic that each and every citizen should have an equal chance to express his preference for candidates at the primary meetings, for the several offices within the gift of the people; and, whereas, the present delegate system is one of partial disfranchisement by reason of its being inoperative to run delegates for all of the several candidates for the numerous offices; and, whereas, many of us, upon attending primary meetings find that the candidate for which we desire to vote has no delegate, and are thereby defrauded out of our votes at a meeting more important than the regular election to the Republican party; and, whereas, the present system has fallen into the hands of a comparatively small number of managing professional politicians in the populous part of the county, thereby securing more than the lion's share of the lucrative offices; therefore,

Resolved, That the present system be abolished, and in lieu thereof the system of direct voting for the candidates be adopted, thereby securing to every voter a full and free opportunity to express his preference for the several candidates for offices respectively.

Resolved, That inasmuch as there are now over two hundred election precincts, and in order that our County Conventions may cease to be unwieldy political mobs, we recommend that instead of delegates there be but one, and that he be the bearer of the sealed returns of the votes for the several candidates for nomination, and thereby simplifying and reducing the labor of the convention.

Resolved, That we invite the co-operation of the other precincts throughout the county in recommending to the forthcoming conventions and the County Committee to inaugurate this much needed reform in our political system.

LEGISLATIVE EXTRAVAGANCE—THE "COMMERCIAL" INDORSED.

The following preamble and resolutions were then read and adopted unanimously:

WHEREAS, The people's money has been shamefully squandered at Harrisburg, during the session of the past Legislature in employing useless supernumeraries, and that in violation of law; and, whereas, the Editor of the PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL has taken a manly and bold stand, by exposing the same, and risen above the trammels of party in championing the rights of the citizens and tax payers; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the citizens of the Twenty-first ward, do hereby extend the right hand of fellowship and encouragement in the good work, and exhort him to continue it until corruptionists and squanderers shall be driven into the ignominious obscurity that they so richly merit.

SAMUEL CHADWICK, ESQ.

Resolved, That we, the citizens of the Twenty-first ward, do most heartily indorse our friend and neighbor, Samuel Chadwick, as a suitable man to represent us at Harrisburg, and most cordially recommend him to the coming county convention for Assembly, and that our delegates be instructed to vote for him "first, last and all the time."

The meeting then adjourned.

A Republican who Declares His Intentions.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

I have for more than thirty years voted the Whig and Republican ticket, and sometimes have swallowed hard doses, because there seemed at the time a necessity that we should stand up to the support of some great National or State interest. It is reported that the Republican ticket for the coming election is already "set up," and that we are all to vote as arranged by the "Grand Cabal"—so intimates Colonel Roberts in his declinature. I speak for myself and very many others with whom I have talked on the subject, and hereby declare that I shall vote for the nominees of no unfair or packed convention, even to uphold the Republican party. I have never sought nor held an office, nor do I now desire one; but I notify the cabal who think they have the ticket set up, that the people will no longer blindly follow such leaders. The COMMERCIAL well deserves the thanks of every honest citizen of Allegheny county and of the State for its independent and persistent exposure of the doings of our rulers at Harrisburg during the late legislative session. Messrs. Wireworkers, beware! the people are now just in condition to give you a mighty "Irish hoist," i. e., downward.

OAKLAND.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

A few nights ago one of the watchmen in the Treasury Department saw a package lying on a table in one of the side rooms, and examining it found that it was a roll of checks payable to bearer, and fully signed, amounting to fifty-six thousand dollars. He watched it carefully till the captain of the watch came round, by whom it was taken to Treasurer Spinner, he sleeping in the building with his bed jammed up against the door of the principal vault. Since then a little more care has been exercised in the room in which the package was found.

The "Madonna of the House of Orleans," a painting, eleven by eight inches, was sold at the Delesseret sale in Paris for 150,000 francs, it is said, to the Duke d'Aumale. It formerly belonged to the House of Orleans, but was sold by Philippe Egalite, the father of Louis Philippe, for the purpose of paying a gambling debt.

It is thought that the total receipts of cotton at New Orleans by the first of September next will not fall far short of 850,000 bales. The value in money therefore will reach one hundred millions of dollars—the largest amount ever received at any port on this continent from a single product of the country.

The humorous papers of Denmark are publishing caricatures of Uncle Sam in the garb of a penniless confidence man, who buys everything and then refuses to pay for the goods. All on account of the refusal of the United States to consummate the bargain in regard to the island of St. Thomas.

An idea of the number of household servants employed in England may be gleaned from the Parliamentary return for 1867-8. Of persons assessed as keeping one servant there were 144,866; as keeping two, 14,833; three, 6,014; four, 3,221; five, 1,896; six, 1,162; seven, 817; eight, 610; nine, 417; ten, 281; eleven, and not exceeding fifteen, 661; sixteen, and not exceeding twenty, 231; twenty-one and upward, 222.

The Franklin Fund, under the charge of the city of Boston, according to the report of the City Treasurer, on January 1, 1869, with the interest accrued during the past year, amounted to $138,493. This sum is invested as follows: Deposited in Massachusetts Life Insurance Company, $133,225; in Providence Institution for Saving, $605; in Suffolk Savings Bank $607; bond of F. Hind, $56. It therefore appears that only $56 is loaned as provided for in Franklin's will.

A Paris correspondent of a Boston paper speaks enthusiastically of the great care taken of, and consideration shown for, children in France. He declares it to be one of the fashions of Paris to make special parties for children, and the same forms and ceremonials are gone through that mark a party for adults. A very marked illustration of this was seen at the Chinese Embassy lately. The Ambassador gave a series of entertainments to the nobility of France and the foreign Ambassadors. The series wound up with an entertainment in the same grand style which marked the others, given by little Gertrude Burlingame to her associates, at which the American children in Paris were invited. The rooms were lighted in regal style. Servants were in full costume, music was provided, and a handsomer dressed and a happier room of children were never seen in Paris. Romps and games, American and Parisian, filled up the hours.

Test of Faith.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

Apropos of the attacks made upon you by the Pittsburgh Gazette, calling you Democrats, &c., let me give one fact that may serve to throw a little light on the subject. For some time back the Democratic paper here, the Messenger, has copied each week, with editorial commendation, an article from the Gazette, attacking some doctrine or movement of the Republican party. Strange, isn't it? And the "oldest" is such a firm Republican paper, too.

WAYNESBURG.

THE London Times has a good word to say about the Pacific Railroad. We quote: "In whatever light we choose to regard the work, we must recognize it not only as a monument of national enterprise, but as a proof of public wisdom. All that the Government has spent in subventions was well bestowed. It was worth many a vote of money, and many a grant of land to connect by an easy internal communication the two great sections of the Republic, and to bring territories as large as those of all the settled States together within reach of the Government and the people. If the present year should also witness the completion of the Suez Canal, it will indeed be a singular coincidence, but even the cutting of the Isthmus is a less wonderful exploit than this Pacific Railroad. M. de Lesseps will deserve infinite credit for his perseverance and success, but the American engineers who bridged with iron rails a desert as broad as the Atlantic at the rate of six miles a day may certainly advance their own claims to the surprise and admiration of mankind." "A desert as broad as the Atlantic," shows a geographical knowledge in the Times office that sadly needs irrigation.

THE septennial meeting of Dunkards is now in progress in Botetourt county, Virginia, and is attended by delegates from all parts of the United States. The number of delegates and visitors expected to take part in the proceedings is estimated at from ten to fifteen thousand. The arrangements made to entertain this vast number of people are on an extensive scale, no less than eighty cattle having been fattened for the occasion. Kissing and feet washing are the two prominent features of the exercises, these ceremonies being strictly confined to the sexes to which the participants belong—men kissing men and women kissing women.

IN giving an incomplete list of the Republican papers of the State which stand with the COMMERCIAL in favor of legislative reform, we gave by mistake the name of the Indiana Messenger, which, if anything, is on the opposite side of the question. The paper we meant to speak of was the Register and American, one of the ablest Republican weekly journals in the State, that fearlessly speaks its mind on all questions affecting the public good.

We would also add to the list the name of that sterling Republican paper, the Waynesburg Republican, published in Democratic Greene.

THE Boston Advertiser gives expression to what we believe is the common sentiment, when it says: The Navy Department has done a very foolish thing in exchanging the Indian names of our war vessels for the names of commonplace inland towns and villages which never saw a war steamer and never will till water runs up hill. The late Secretary of the Navy indulged his Indian tastes to excess; but a little familiarity has made the names attractive, and much easier to pronounce than the shorter names now put in their place.

IRON grain barges, in this country, are suggested by Mr. Morse, our Consul at London. They have recently come into use on the Danube, Don, Dniester, Vistula and other rivers. It is well for Western merchants to keep an eye to all improvements of this kind, lest the competition from Russia, Prussia, Austria, Hungary, Turkey, Egypt and other wheat-growing countries for the supply of the European market, may avail, by reason of the cheaper transit.

THE PARDON OF W. J. ROBINSON.

Names of the Signers to the Petition.

There has been considerable feeling in the community in regard to the action of Governor Geary in signing a pardon for W. J. Robinson, convicted in the Quarter Sessions, at the March term, for felonious assault and battery, and sentenced to an imprisonment of two years in the Western Penitentiary. All pardons are granted upon the application of citizens, and it is but just to the Governor to publish the names of those who were instrumental in procuring the release of Robinson. The following is the list:

Col. John H. Stewart, Secretary Republican County Executive Committee; Capt. James D. McGill, of the Custom House, Pittsburgh; Col. H. S. Fleming, Samuel B. Cluley, Sheriff of Allegheny county; Hon. James Lowry, Jr., ex-Mayor of Pittsburgh; John G. Brown, Clerk of Courts; Hon. T. J. Bigham, late Senator; Will. Ramsey, city editor Daily Post; Gen. F. H. Collier, Wm. C. Smythe, A. P. Anshutz, Wm. Boyd, Evan Lewis, and one hundred and thirty-eight other citizens of Allegheny county; George N. Armstrong, Samuel T. Paisley, James S. Negley, Wm. C. Moreland, S. C. Trauerman, Thos. M. Marshall, John M. Kirkpatrick, J. V. Donaldson, Joseph Brown, Thomas Rosewell, President, and thirty-nine other officers and members of the Independence Fire Engine Company No. 7; R. C. Elliot, and forty-three other members of the Vigilant Fire Company No. 6; James V. Hammer, Vice President, and fifty-one other officers and members of the Lawrence Hose Company; J. R. Scott, President, and thirteen other officers and members of the Niagara Engine Company; Fred. Ruck, President, and twenty-nine other officers and members of the Relief Fire Company No. 9; Nathan Jones, President, and fifty-one other officers and members of the Neptune Fire Company; Wm. C. Best, President, and sixty other officers and members of the Duquesne Fire Company; A. Crawford, Captain, and eleven other officers and members of the Eagle Fire Company No. 1.

POLITICAL.

REPUBLICAN

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican voters of Allegheny County are requested to meet at the usual places for holding elections in the several Wards, Boroughs and Townships, on

SATURDAY, MAY 29, 1869,

And elect Delegates from each Election District, to each of the three following Conventions, viz:

Two Delegates from each to the COUNTY CONVENTION, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Sheriff, Recorder, Register, Treasurer, Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, Clerk of the Orphans' Court and Commissioner.

Two other Delegates from each to the LEGISLATIVE CONVENTION, for the purpose of nominating one candidate for State Senator, for one year, to fill the unexpired term of Russell Errett, resigned, and six candidates for Assembly. And

Two other Delegates from each to the JUDICIAL CONVENTION, to nominate one candidate for Judge of the District Court, and one candidate for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, and elect eight delegates to represent the county in the Republican State Convention.

These Conventions will severally meet, in the city of Pittsburgh, on

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1869,

At 11 o'clock A. M. at the following places:

The COUNTY CONVENTION will meet at the COURT HOUSE.

The LEGISLATIVE CONVENTION will meet at CITY HALL, on Market street. And

The JUDICIAL CONVENTION will meet in MASONIC HALL, on Fifth avenue, between Wood and Smithfield streets.

The election of Delegates will be held between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock P. M., and will be held, as far as practicable by the Republican members of the election boards in the several districts; and in those districts where the Republican election officers are a minority of the regular election boards, the said officers are authorized to appoint enough additional officers to complete the board.

The voting in the Cities and Boroughs shall, in all cases, be by ballot, and in the Townships by marking.

The President of each Convention will appoint a Committee of three, the three Committees thus appointed to meet together, as soon as practicable after the adjournment of the Conventions, and appoint a County Committee for the ensuing year.

By order of the County Committee.

RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman.
JOHN H. STEWART, Secretary.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

TUESDAY EVENING, May 25, 1869.

The local market continues working towards an easier condition. We find that many of the discount houses are letting out liberally to their customers, and borrowers in good credit experience no difficulty in obtaining sufficient accommodations. The offerings at the banks indicate a steady demand for loans, which is very generally favorably met.

—The following stocks were sold last evening on the second floor of the Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, by A. McIlwaine, Auctioneer:

| | |
|---|---|
| Citizens National Bank | $68 50 |
| M. and M. National Bank | 70 25 |
| Second National Bank | 94 00 |
| Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad | 11 00 |

—Government bonds close several fractions lower than yesterday's quotations. There seems to be heavy realizing, and the market is looking weaker.

—The stock market, as reported in our several dispatches from New York, was strong and firm up to about three o'clock this afternoon, when it appeared to suddenly break and closed on many of the principal stocks below the morning prices. The World says the Northwest shares seem to have taken a new start on the report that the old clique has got possession of the stock again, and that dividends will be paid on both the common and preferred. The Evening Post also remarks, in reference to the Northwest, that there are indications of an upward movement, founded on the fact that they are lower than other ten per cent. stocks, and that there is outstanding a large number of speculative sales in both classes of the stock.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, WEDNESDAY, May 26, 1869.

There was very little to be said in regard to the oil trade. The market for both crude and refined is weak and has a still further declining tendency. The sales of crude yesterday were considerable, aggregating fully 22,000 bbls. In refined there was very little done.

The following dispatches were received by the Western Union Telegraph office at their office on Duquesne Way:

NEW YORK, May 26.—Antwerp, 48¼ francs; Liverpool unchanged. In New York crude 15¼c, and refined 31¾c. Market a little unsettled on account of fires.

TITUSVILLE, PA., May 25, 12:45 P. M.—Market dull with a declining tendency, at $4 50 on upper creek and $4 75 on lower. Weather warm and sultry.

TIDIOUTE, PA., May 25—1:20 P. M.—Market a little firmer. Offers to sell in small lots at $4 50.

TARR FARM, May 25—1:45 P. M.—Market very sick; no sales; buyers offering $4 55@4 60.

OIL CITY, May 25.—Market quiet; sales reported at $5 on broad gauge cars.

ROUSEVILLE, PA., May 25—12:15 P. M.—Sales at $4 65@4 70. Market quiet but firm.

NEW YORK, May 25.—May 31c; June 31½@31¾c; July 32c bid, and 32¼c asked; July and August 32¾c bid; July to December 33¼c. Market quiet; nothing doing yet; crude 16c bulk.

[By Western Union Telegraph.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 25—10:30 A. M.—Market quiet, but firm. P. L. S. to W. 31c; S. W. 31½c; crude 15½@16c.

[By Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 25—6 P. M.—May 30½c; June 31c; July 31½@31¾c; August 32½c. Market sick and weak.

[By Western Union Telegraph.]

OIL CITY, May 25.—Market dull; sales of 3,000 bbls at $5; creek quiet at $4 55@4 60.

STORY FARM, May 25.—Market dull; nothing doing; $4 55@4 60, nominal.

PLEASANTVILLE, May 25.—Market dull; scarcely anything doing; sales at $4 10 at the wells.

TIDIOUTE, PA., May 25, 1869.—Market is dull; f. o. b., $4 55 to 4 60.

ROUSEVILLE, May 25, 1869, 3:40 P. M.—Market drooping; sales at $4 60 and downward tendency.

TARR FARM, May 25, 1869.—Market dull and no sales; offering from $4 60 to 4 65, and asking from $4 65 to 4 75.

TITUSVILLE, PA., May 25, 1869.—The market has been quiet and dull so far to-day, without any noticeable change in prices. Sales f. o. b. of 500 bbls at Titusville at $4 40; 500 bbls at $4 45. On the creek, south of Petroleum Center, there are buyers for regular delivery, seller's option, May and June, at $4 60 to 4 70.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Last night's closing Crude in bulk 15¼c and dull. Refined less active; sellers anxious at 31½@31¾c on spot; 31½@31¾c for June, 32c for July. A line sold deliverable from June to August at 32¼c. Reports from New York at 12 M. to-day report the market dull and prices unchanged. Advices from New York at 1:15 P. M., report crude dull at 15½c; refined 31½c. The market has a downward tendency. At 2 P. M., demand fair but at lower rates, 15@15¼c for crude, and 31¼c for refined.

CRUDE OIL—There were transactions aggregating fully 20,000 bbls but at low figures, and the market closed weak and with a still further declining tendency. The following sales are reported:

ALLEGHENY LIVE STOCK MARKET.

TUESDAY, May 25, 1869.

CATTLE—The number of cattle on sale this week aggregated 900 head, against 700 head last week, and 750 head the previous week. Of the number on sale this week fully 770 head were from Chicago. The receipts being so heavy the market ruled rather dull, although there was little or no change in prices from those ruling last week. Good to medium cattle sold at $7 00@7 50, and prime to extra steers at $8 00@8 25 ⅌ hundred. There was considerable inquiry for stock steers, and readily taken at $5 50@6 50 ⅌ hundred. The bulk of the sales were taken for this market, there being no shipping demand, and a considerable number left over were taken to the Central Stock Yards, and some back into the country to await next week's market. Among the sales reported we note the following:

Lowenthine & Zeigler sold 32 head of Chicago steers at $7 25@8 37.

Haas & Kraus, 50 head of Chicago steers at $7 00@8 00.

L. Keefer, 32 head Chicago steers at $7 00@8 00.

E. Katz, 51 head Chicago steers at $7 00@7 75.

Carr & McAllister, 54 head Chicago steers for John Kerwin, at $7 25@8 00.

S. Marks, 86 head Chicago steers at $7 00@8 25.

Jacob Needy, 33 head Chicago steerst at $7 50@8 25.

M. Verner, 34 head Chicago stoess at $7 25@8 25.

Trauerman & Lobman, 50 head Chicago steers at $7 00@8 00.

Greenwald & Kahn, 51 head Chicago steers at $7 25@8 75.

L. Rothchilds, 25 head mixed Chicago stock at $6 75@7 75.

Hedges & Taylor, 16 head of prime to extra steers at $7 50@8 00.

Holmes, Lafferty & Glass, 65 head mixed stock at $6 00@8 00.

Trauerman & Lobman, 29 head of stock steers at $6 50.

Hazlewood & Blackstock, 70 head of Illinois and Ohio stock at $7 00@8 25.

L. & J. Shamberg, 60 head of fair to extra at $7 00@9 00.

J. Hanlin, 6 head Washington county cows and 1 bull at $5 00@6 00.

Peter Sheltemantle, 4 bulls at $3 50@4 50.

SHEEP—The receipts have fallen off, aggregating but 900 head, against fully 1,300 head last week. The market, however, ruled dull, principally because the quality offered was not the kind inquired for, and those who had prime fat sheep realized good prices, say from $6 00@6 50 ⅌ hundred. Lambs brought from $2 00@4 00 ⅌ head, as to quality. We note sales as follows:

J. F. Negly sold 105 head of good to extra clipped at $5 00@6 50 ⅌ hundred.

M. Flinner, 85 head clipped and wooled sheep at $2 00@3 75 ⅌ head.

Adam Eckert, 66 head at $4 00 for sheep and for lambs $2 00@4 00 ⅌ head, as to quality.

Peter Sheitmantle sold 12 head at $2@3 50 for sheep and $2@3 for lambs.

J. Davis sold 100 head good clipped sheep at $5 50@6 25 ⅌ hundred.

Garwin & Bro. sold 100 head of sheep and lambs, the prices for which we did not learn.

Fowler & Walter, 84 head at $2@4 50 for sheep and $2@3 50 for lambs.

M. Humes sold 60 head of lambs and sheep at an average of $3 00.

HOGS—There was hardly anything done in hogs, as the local demand is very light and will be so until fall. In a retail way some sales were made at $10@11 ⅌ hundred, as to quality.

LIVE STOCK AT CHICAGO.

CATTLE.

The receipts the past week were 12,566 head, against 9,622 head the previous week, and shipments 10,869 head, against 8,651 head the previous week. With the exception of something of an increase in the supply, the general features of the market for the past week do not differ in any essential particular from those of the previous week. Eastern advices have been uniformly of a favorable character, which insured a large attendance of shippers, and, under a healthy, strong demand, the supply, though exceeding by several hundred head the receipts for any previous week of the season, did not prove largely excessive, and previous rates have not only been fully sustained, on all descriptions, but for fair to choice qualities sales not in a few instances were effected at a substantial advance. The weather has been favorable for out-door operations, and the attendance of Eastern buyers, as well as city butchers and feeders, was much larger than the average, and from first to last all grades of stock, save perhaps the poorest, have met with prompt sale at remunerative prices. The upper grades, as usual, found their way into the hands of New York, Boston and Albany buyers, at prices ranging at $7 00@7 50 for prime to choice fat, smooth steers of from 1,200 to 1,350 lbs average, with a few transactions at $7 62½@7 75 for graded steers of from 1,400 to 1,500 lbs average. Buyers for the markets of Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Baltimore, were actively engaged, and fair to good smooth fleshy steers, averaging from 1,050 to 1,200 lbs, were salable at $6 00@6 75. The demand for local consumption was larger in the aggregate, than for last week, or the preceding one, and common to grades, such as are usually sought by city butchers, sold readily at $4 75@5 75 for medium to choice cows, and common to medium steers, of from 900 to 1,050 lbs average. There was but a moderate inquiry for "stockers," yet prices were well sustained throughout, sales making at $4 50@5 75 for lots averaging from 800 to 1,100 lbs.

On Saturday a quieter feeling prevailed. The receipts were larger than usual for a Saturday, and buyers generally insisted upon lower prices, but their demands not being acceded to, comparatively little was accomplished in the way of sales. Some 700 head changed hands during the day at prices ranging at $4 00@7 25 for common to prime grades. The market closed steady, with less than 1,000 head unsold. The following were the

| | |
|---|---|
| Extra graded steers | $ 7 65@7 75 |
| Choice Beeves—Fine, fat, well formed 4 to 6 year old steers, and averaging from 1,250 to 1,400 lbs | 7 25@7 50 |
| Prime Beeves—Good, well fatted, finely-formed steers, and averaging 1,150 to 1,250 lbs, at | 6 75@7 00 |
| Fair Graded—Fair steers, in fair flesh, averaging 1,000 to 1,200 lbs, at | 6 00@6 50 |
| Medium Class—Medium steers and good cows, for city slaughter, and averaging 900 to 1,050 lbs, at | 4 75@5 75 |
| Stock Cattle—Common cattle, in decent flesh, averaging 800 to 1,000 lbs, at | 4 50@5 75 |
| Inferior—Light and thin cows and steers | 3 50@4 25 |

The following were the prices current at this time last year:

| | |
|---|---|
| Choice to extra grades | $8 25@9 00 |
| Fair to prime do | 7 00@7 75 |
| Common to medium do | 5 50@6 50 |
| Inferior do | 4 00@5 50 |

HOGS—The receipts of hogs the past week aggregated 35,640 head, against 24,998 head the previous week—an increase of 10,642 head. The too liberal arrivals of Tuesday and Wednesday, coupled with the rather unfavorable tenor of Eastern advices, had a depressing effect upon the market, and prices fell off 25@35c ⅌ 100 lbs. Later, however, under an increased demand, a better, firmer feeling obtained, and by Friday night the reduction suffered earlier in the week had been fully recovered. A few sales have been effected at $9 55@9 70 for "fancy" assorted lots averaging from 250 to 300 lbs, but the great bulk of the offerings changed hands at and within the range of $8 75@9 25 for common to good smooth even lots.

Saturday, as is usually the case at this period of the week, the market was quiet. The feeling developed, however, was one of firmness, and values were well supported. The receipts were 3,179 head, and the sales 1,600 head at a range of $8 75@9 40 for common to choice qualities. We quote at $8 60@8 80 for common; $8 90@9 10 for medium to fair; and at $9 25@9 50 for good to choice grades. At this time last year $8 50@9 50 was the range of the market.

SHEEP—The receipts for the week were 4,639 head and none shipped. The supply has been light, and no more than sufficient to satisfy the wants of the local trade. A majority of the arrivals during the past week have been shorn, for which $3 00@5 50 have been the current rates for common to choice mutton qualities. Wool sheep have sold at a range of $5 00@7 00 for common to choice. The market closes quiet and steady.

MONONGAHELA—Five feet five, and falling.

THE marks last evening indicated five feet five inches and falling slowly. The weather was warm. On the landing trade was not very active. The departures include the Leonidas, for New Orleans, New York, for Nashville, and Julia, for Zanesville.

THE only boats in port are the R. C. Gray, Kate Putnam, Grey Eagle, Glendale and Matamoras No. 2.

A LARGE break occurred in the old levee, between Morganza and Grand levee, Wednesday morning. The gap is 150 yards long.

THE steamer Glasgow, Captain Robinson, arrived at St. Louis on Sunday, and was announced to leave for this city on the 25th.

THE steamer Leonidas, Capt. R. C. Greenlee, departed for New Orleans with all the freight she could manage on the water. Pilots, Thos. Morris and Thos. Javens.

THE new packet New State, Captain C. Muhleman, leaves this day for Wheeling, Marietta and Parkersburg. A good boat, in charge of careful and attentive officers.

THE steamer New York, Captain Richmond, left last evening for Nashville, with an excellent trip. Pilots, C. Reno and Andrew Bunting.

THE steamer Silver Moon is still on the rocks at Louisville, with no prospect of getting off until the river rises, provided she don't go to pieces before that time.

NORTHERN LINE OF SIDEWHEEL STEAMERS.—Through receipts given to all points on the Upper Mississippi to St. Paul at the lowest rates, by R. C. Gray, No. 94 Water street.

THE first class packet Wauanita, Captain C. A. Dravo, will positively take her departure for Cairo, St. Louis, Galena, Dubuque and St. Paul. Passengers and shippers can rely on her departure at the advertised time.

THE fleet side-wheeler Grey Eagle, Captain C. L. Brennan, takes her departure this day at 12 M. for Wheeling, Marietta and Parkersburg. To persons going that way a fine opportunity is presented.

THE fine passenger steamer Armadillo, Capt. A. McCarty, is announced for St. Louis and the headwaters of the Mississippi. This boat is well found in every respect and is in charge of gentlemanly and attentive officers. Capt. B. McLaughlin will do the honors in the office.

ALL the suits brought by Marshall & Kilpatrick, of St. Louit, against the insurance offices in Cincinnati, for the loss of the Magnolia, were settled on Friday, the compromise being for about one-half the amount of the claims.

THE model barge, Parker Line No. 1, having a tonnage of 694 90-100 tons, has been sold by Godfrey Holterhoff to the Verhoeff Brothers, of Louisville, for $3,500. This barge has lately been in the employ of the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company, of St. Louis.

HELENA, MON., May 23.—Steamer Deer Lodge arrived at Benton on the 19th—forty days from Sioux City; reports no boats in sight. River very low, but rising two inches a day; 22 inches on Dauphine's rapids. The Deer Lodge started to return on the 21st, with a full load of discharged soldiers.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The fine passenger steamer Wauanita, Captain C. A. Dravo, will positively take her departure this day for St. Louis, Galena, Dubuque and St. Paul. This boat has the best of accommodations and careful and experienced officers. The first clerk is Mr. C. W. Bennett, an officer who stands at the head of the profession.

THE Louisville folks are talking about sending one of their oarsmen east to row against some of the crack oarsmen. There is no use in going that far when the same parties can be accommodated in Pittsburgh. All you have to do is to say the word and you can be accommodated. It's a long time since Louisville and Pittsburgh met with the oar. Can't something be done? Lets have a four oared race.

THE far famed passenger steamer Glendale, Captain John M. Hare, is announced for St. Louis, Galena, Dubuque and St. Paul. This boat is noted for fine speed, superior accommodations and careful and attentive officers. Passengers who have traveled on the Glendale speak in flattering terms of her appointments. Our attentive friend, Capt. Jas. Mellon, does the honors in the office.

LOUISVILLE ITEMS.—The Sunday and Monday Courier-Journal says: The Wild Duck and barges, from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, discharged here yesterday 30 tons of iron, nails and glassware, and passed down through the canal. The towboat Collier in coming out of the canal Friday night with two barges of iron ore got out on the rocks and remained there several hours, but finally got off without damage.

ST. LOUIS.—The Times, Democratic, says: Alf. Sanford, the newly appointed Supervising Inspector for this district, is an old New Orleans and St. Louis pilot and captain. He is the first pilot ever appointed to the position. Although we do not like his politics, we think he will make a good Inspector. He is an old personal friend of President Grant. We think that the barge company are paying the wages asked by the Association for pilots. They employ first-class men.

PETROLEUM.

ECLIPSE PETROLEUM REFINERY

HERBERT W. C. TWEDDLE,

MANUFACTURER OF

Lubricating and High Test Burning Oils.

Eclipse Railroad Axle Oil, Stands great heat without change; remains limpid at lowest temperatures. Special Oil for tropical climates or hot weather.

Locomotive, Engine, Machine Shop, Will cut Screws.

Saw Mill and Planing Mill Oils, Adapted for high speed.

Spindle Oil, Wool Oil, Tanners' Stuffing & Finishing Oil, Harness Oil, Head-Light Oil, Benzole, Gasoline, Parrafine.

ARMOR VARNISH, to preserve Bright Iron Work and Machinery from Rust.

These products are manufactured under Dr. Tweddle's patents by Superheated Steam in Vaccuo. The Lubricating Oils are almost odorless, perfectly pure, uniform, and mostly light colored, stand a high temperature unchanged, and remain limpid during extreme cold. The Railroad Oils are unequalled, and are in constant use on many of the principal Railroads. Samples can be examined and orders left at 174 WOOD STREET. Works at Sharpsburg Bridge.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Court of Common Pleas—Judges Mellon and Stowe.

In the case of Martin vs. Mullen et al., previously reported, the jury found a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $331 16.

In the case of Frazier & Bros. vs. Coulter, a verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $1,550.

A motion was made on the part of the defendants for a new trial in the case of Adler & Co., vs the Penna. R. R. Co.

In the case of Harper, Gutman & Bro. vs. Williams, the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $4 95.

The first case taken up yesterday was that of Heath for use vs. Haigh & Cochran, action on a builder's contract. The jury found the following verdict: "that they find for the plaintiff the sum of $11,000 to be released upon the payment of judgments and cost, in No. 45, October term, 1865, and costs in No. 81, November term, 1867; subject to the opinion of the Court on the question of law reserved."

Walker & Hutton vs. Leopold; verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $105 20.

Hulden vs. McKnight & Richner. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $12 50.

Holt vs. Starr & Ewing; action on a contract. On trial.

No. 38. Poth vs. Deckenbach.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

The ejectment suit of Guess vs. Stewart et al, previously reported, is still on trial.

Grand Opening To-day.

As most of our readers are aware, the well-known Dry Goods House of J. W. Barker & Co., 59 Market street, has for years enjoyed such an extensive patronage that an enlargement of the present or the establishment of a new house was a matter of necessity. This pleasurable state of affairs is owing to the sterling quality of their goods, the promptness with which they are presented to the public immediately after their appearance in Eastern markets, and the remarkably moderate prices which prevail in the house at all times. In order to accommodate their constantly increasing patronage, it was resolved to establish a branch house, and a convenient location was found at No. 20 Sixth (late St. Clair) street, where they have fitted up in finest style of architecture a palace where Fashion will be pleased to hold sway. The new store has been stocked with the choicest fabrics in the matter of dry goods—such only as taste and judgment, inherent and acquired through years of experience, could select. In the dress goods line, their assortment is extensive and varied, embracing silks of every hue and texture, poplins of new and elegant patterns, alpacas, prints, etc., all selected with great care especially for this market. But the ladies will find other than dress goods to please their fancy, and when we tell them that such an elegant assortment of embroideries and laces as that to be opened to their inspection to-day at No. 20 Sixth street, has never been presented to them before, they will have some idea of the completeness of the establishment, which in every respect is a credit to the enterprise of Messrs. Barker as well as to the city.

We trust our lady readers will not forget that the new store will be opened to-day for the first time for business, and that they will agree with us that such a brilliant and lavish display of goods has seldom, if ever, been made in this city before, we cannot doubt. The Messrs. Barker, we know, will feel pleased to see all their lady friends to-day at No. 20 Sixth street, and we expect to see the new store crowded from morning until evening.

Gents' Seasonable Furnishing Goods.

Quite an improvement has been made in the storeroom, No. 72 Fifth avenue, occupied by Messrs. Putnam & Adams, which is now the fashionable headquarters for gentlemen's furnishing goods. Mr. Adams, who has just become a member of the firm, is a young gentleman well and favorably known in both mercantile and social circles in this city, and with Mr. Putnam, whose taste, judgment and experience in his business cannot be questioned, will add, if possible, to the popularity of this establishment. They invite particular attention to their extensive stock of summer underwear, which for elegance and variety cannot be excelled anywhere. In this line they have goods of the finest quality, and also lower grades, of all sizes, to suit the million. In the matter of ties and summer scarfs their stock is very large and of the most fashionable description. The firm is specially noted, however, for the excellence of its linen collars and cuffs, which are of extra quality and meet with rapid sale. In fact, at Messrs. Putnam & Adams's, all seasonable furnishing goods for men's wear can be found in profusion, and all of the best quality. All goods will be found to be as represented, and the firm deserve to receive a liberal share of public patronage.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.

James Cambell made information before Mayor Brush yesterday morning charging Charles Brennan with aggravated assault and battery. Campbell alleged that he was passing along Hand, now Seventh street, on Monday evening, when the defendant threw a boulder at him. The boulder struck Campbell on the back of the head, inflicting a terrible gash thereon. Brennan was arrested by a police office and taken to the lock-up on a charge of disorderly conduct, and yesterday morning a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs was imposed on him. Subsequently the above information was lodged against him, and in default of the necessary bail he was committed to jail for trial. The fine was not paid and a second commitment was lodged against him.

An Evening of Sacred Song.

Philip Phillips, the "Singing Pilgrim," whose reputation as a singer is not confined to America, will give a Concert at the First Methodist Church (Rev. Alex. Clark's), Fifth avenue, on Wednesday evening, June 2. Tickets can be procured at the various music stores of Pittsburgh and Allegheny city.

Rest for the Stomach.

Dr. Keyser in some remarks on the stomach and diseases bearing the name of Dyspepsia, says: "You can't force the stomach up to an undue amount of work without ultimate harm Like the brain, it will get tired and will, once in a while, give out if it has too much to do It needs rest, and less digestion to perform, in order to enable it to recover its worn-out and lost tone. You can no more force it up to its work by bitters and hot stuffs than you can make an overloaded horse pull his load by the whip or the spur. Recollect that the stomach can be overloaded as well as anything else; pepperpot, spices and condiments thrown into it at such a time, is worse than useless; it is positively hurtful. Strychnia and nerve tonics and the usual apetizers may do for a while, and are a common resort, by those who are fond of high eating and higher drinking. They will be sure, for the time being, to bring it up to the digestive point, but only to allow it, after it has accomplished that end, to sink into a lower and less efficient condition. I tell you a weakened stomach needs rest and coaxing. Its tender coatings will revolt, and ought to revolt, at the immense loads of radishes, and lettuce, and other crude and non-nutritious materials that are often given it in the prospect that it will turn them into blood to renew and rebuild the organism. The stomach cannot make blood out of these things any more than a sculptor can chisel a marble statue out of a quartz rock; for the simple reason that there is no blood in them. Bread and meat, eggs and milk; grain food for the lean and flesh for the fat, will do a great deal to restore the powers of the stomach and place the whole animal economy in harmony and order. Neither do you want hot and fiery drinks to influence the tender membranes of the stomach to a fever heat, with the view to make it digest more than nature ever intended it should. If the muscular system is relaxed and weakened, a cup of good coffee, well modified with cream and sugar, will do more than all the bitters in the world, and if the nerves need toning, I have found nothing equal to a cup of good black tea. Byron's hock and soda water are not half as good. Most of you have heard or read of the noble Venetian CORNARO, who after forty years of dissipation, which ruined his health and came well nigh ruining his fortune, took a notion into his head to eat and drink less; he limited himself to nine ounces of solid food a day, flourished on that and lived to be a healthy centenarian. There is a lesson of wisdom in his example which, if followed, would do more for the unhealthy stomach than all the medicaments in the world.

Free Medical Consultation.

Dr. Keyser will give free consultation at his great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday from 1 until 6 P. M., and from 7 to 9 at night.

The Vital Statistics of the United States

Show that periodical fevers and acute and chronic disorders of the stomach and bowels, are among the most prominent and fatal diseases in this country. Disobedience to the laws of health, as regards diet; the use of pernicious stimulants; and the wear and tear of business excitement, and of "fast life" generally, have much to do with the prevalence of these maladies in our cities; while in the West, and especially in the newly opened districts, they are chiefly due to malaria, unwholesome water and the exposure and privation incident to life in new settlements.

Now, IT IS A FACT that it is as possible to protect the human system against these maladies, as to guard life and property against the incursion of assassins and thieves. Strengthen the vital organization with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and it becomes as capable of resisting the active principle of epidemic or endemic disease as a fire-proof safe is of resisting the action of combustion. This is the experience of thousands who have remained unscathed by malarious disorders in the sickliest seasons, while their neighbors, who neglected to tone and regulate their systems with this unequalled and medicinal stimulant, have fallen thick and fast around them. Weakness invites disease. Vigor repels it. Help nature to fight the good fight with infection, whether it be in the air, the water, or the soil, with this matchless preparation,—a compound of the rarest vegetable extracts with the purest of all diffusive stimulants.

ATTENTION, SPORTSMEN.—WM. CRAIG, formerly of 50 Wayne, has opened a new establishment at No. 56 FEDERAL STREET, ALLEGHENY, where he will carry on the GUNSMITHING in all its branches, and also keep constantly on hand a large assortment of GUNS, PISTOLS, CARTRIDGES, AMMUNITION, &c., of every description. He will be happy to wait on his former patrons. Give him a call, at No. 56 FEDERAL STREET, Allegheny.

WELL OPERATORS AND BORERS
WANTED.

The undersigned and associates control, by purchase and otherwise, several thousand acres of the best OIL LANDS in Venango county, Pa. They desire to let a few leases on each Farm on very favorable terms to men who are known to be thoroughly competent in every way.

Most of the Lands are located directly on the OIL BELT from Petroleum Center to Charley run, thence on the same line to Scrub Grass; and they have also some very choice Farms in the new district at Emlenton. All the above property has been purchased by the present owners who have had much experience in selecting territory and regardless of cost, so they secured what they believed to be the best located property. Parties intending to operate for Oil will do well to apply immediately to some one of the undersigned, who has authority to give Leases.

ST. CLOUD HOTEL.
NEW YORK.

This new and commodious House, located corner of Broadway and Forty-second street, possesses advantages over all other houses, for the accommodation of its guests. It was built expressly for a first class Family Boarding House—the rooms being large and en suit, heated by steam—with hot and cold water, and furnished second to none; while the culinary department is in the most experienced hands; affording guests an unequaled table.

One of Atwood's Patent Elevators is also among the "modern improvements" and at the service of guests at all hours.

The Broadway and University Place Cars pass the door every four minutes, running from the City Hall to Central Park, while the Sixth and Seventh Avenue Lines are but a short block on either side, affording ample facilities for communicating with all the Depots, Steamboat Landings, places of Amusement and Business of the great metropolis.

1,000
Good Envelopes,
FOR $1 80.

Our cheap Note Paper was such a decided success that we have been induced to bring out a Cheap Envelope. We are now receiving Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand of the above. The color is Dark Amber, and the quality is Double Thick. They are such Envelopes as usually sell for $3 50 per M; and are good enough for any purpose. No business man need be ashamed to send out these Envelopes. They are not the thin circular Envelopes. We have those also, at $1 25 per M. We will print the address of the sender on these at $1 75 per 1,000 extra, thus making them cheaper than the stamped Envelopes furnished by the Government. No quantity less than 1,000 sold.

WHO WANTS A HOME?
REAL ESTATE,
For Sale at Auction.
Inducements Offered to the Purchaser Such as are met with Only Once in a Lifetime.

The undersigned will offer, at public auction, July 1st, 1869, his plantation on the Ohio river, consisting of 434 acres, lying immediately below and adjoining the town of Guyandotte, Cabell county, West Virginia, 125 acres of which is the very best quality of Ohio river bottom, entirely above overflow, and in an excellent state of cultivation; 60 acres of upland in cultivation, with two streams of water running through it, a portion of which has been lately cleared, and is admirably adapted to grazing purposes, and is first class tobacco land.

On the premises are three tenant houses, two orchards, an inexhaustible quarry of fine building stone, immediately on the bank of the Guyandotte river; a spring of excellent, never-failing water; a first rate well and cistern, and a mineral spring, which, if put in order, would be one of the best in the State; a large new barn; four new tobacco barns on the back lands; a good frame dwelling house built in 1861, with ten rooms completely finished, besides the kitchen and cellar; also, smoke house, corn crib, and other out-buildings. The dwelling house stands within about 125 yards of the foot of the wire suspension bridge across Guyandotte river, and about 50 yards from the Ohio river, on an elevation of about 30 feet above the highest tide of water.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, now in process of construction, which is to meet the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad at the Kentucky State Line, 12 miles below, will cross Guyandotte river half a mile above its mouth, running through the land at the foot of the hill, dividing the bottom from the uplands. Many other items of interest might be given, but full information can be had by corresponding with W. H. Hagan, at Guyandotte, West Va., or the owner of the premises.

Terms. One-third cash, and the balance in equal annual payments of one and two years.

JAMES H. BUFFINGTON,
d* COVINGTON, KY.

LEGS! LEGS!!
THE ARTIFICIAL LIMB MANUFACTURING COMPANY.
CHARTERED BY THE STATE OF PENN'A.
All Shareholders Are Men Wearing the Legs Made by the Company.

To those requiring a limb we would say that our own experience has induced us to establish a factory here that would make a comfortable and durable limb for a reasonable price. After trying a number of solid socket and padded socket legs, we have always found more comfort and usefulness in this "ADJUSTABLE LACING SOCKET" than in any other made in the country. One of our number, a skilled mechanic, has charge of the shop. We have bought the right to use two of the best patents, and by our experience we hope to improve in every way that will add to the comfort, durability or appearance of the limbs we make. We have put the price of our new legs at $80. Persons from a distance are only detained in the city while the measure and a cast of the injured limb is taken.

The saving to purchasers, as compared with Eastern prices, is from $20 to $95 in the price of legs; at least $26 railroad fare, hotel bills and other traveling expenses, and then we are satisfied that our limb will give better satisfaction than any one made in New York or Philadelphia. If we can get orders we can maintain our factory at the above price, and we therefore, ask an examination before going elsewhere.

We make to order and keep on hand a supply of stockings, braces, and appliances for injured or deformed limbs, also, crutches, trusses, [illegible] &c. For further information or circular, containing many testimonial letters from those who have worn our artificial limbs, address ARTIFICIAL LIMB MANUFACTURING COMPANY, No. 203 PENN STREET, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, Pittsburgh, Pa. ws*
